

Fuse Research Programme Meeting

Exploring and understanding access to community-based mental health and substance use services for people experiencing homelessness

Thursday 28 April 2022, 9.30 to 11.30am

[Ground Floor Event Space, Urban Science Building,
1 Science Square, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE4 5TG](#)

DRAFT PROGRAMME

This interactive workshop will provide an overview of the findings, insights from Experts by Experience on shaping the research project, and end with thoughts from voluntary sector colleagues. There will be discussions throughout the workshop to ensure your voice is heard when creating the recommendations for policy and practice.

09.30-09.35	Welcome and introductions
09.35-10.00	Session 1: Research Overview of research findings (10 mins) Emma Adams , Mental Health Fellow, NIHR Applied Research Collaboration (ARC) North East and North Cumbria (NENC) Breakout groups to identify key priorities for policy and practice (15 mins)
10.00-10.15	Break
10.15-10.40	Session 2: Co-production Experts by Experience sharing experience (15 mins) Q&A and facilitated conversation (10 mins)
10.40-10.55	Break
10.55-11.15	Session 3: Practice perspective What this research means for you and your daily work (20mins) Steve McKinlay , Chief Executive, Tyne Housing Non-Executive Director, Northumbria Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust Board
11.15-11.25	Q&A (10mins)
11.25-11.30	Close

Tweet about the event using #FuseRRM

Follow Fuse @fuse_online