

Apply for a redaction

About this form

This form should be completed by financial institutions or individuals applying for information to be redacted from exchange on human rights grounds. This form is not exhaustive and the financial institution or individual should use the blank box on page 3 to draw attention to any other relevant facts, and to make sure that relevant supporting documents are sent with this application.

If you need to raise a potential human rights concern, please read the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office reports on human rights and democracy. Go to www.gov.uk/government/collections/human-rights-and-democracy-reports Please complete a separate form for each relevant jurisdiction for which a redaction is being requested.

Details
Name of financial institution	2 Financial institutions: Automatic Exchange of Information (AEOI) user ID  This can only be obtained after you have registered for AEOI reporting. Go to www.gov.uk/guidance/register-for-automatic-exchange-of-information

Persons at risk

3 Names and addresses of persons at risk If full details are included in supporting documents please include the file name below Names of person at risk Full address including postcode File name Relationship if included of persons at risk to the financial institution (for example, savings account holder, grant recipient of charity)

The host country

Tell us the internal situation in the host country and its attitude towards human rights law and international humanitarian law

4	Which destination jurisdiction does this application refer to?  Please complete a separate application form for each relevant jurisdiction
5	What are the specific concerns? Put 'X' in the boxes
	Use of the death penalty
	Unlawful or arbitrary arrest or detention
	Torture or cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment
	Unlawful killing and/or unlawful use of force
	Enforced disappearance
	Unfair trial or denial of justice
	Unlawful interference with democratic rights (for example, freedom of assembly or expression)
	Violations of the rights of the child
	Refoulement (forced return where there's a danger of torture or cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment)
	Human trafficking and/or sexual violence
	Persecution of an identifiable group
	Other violations not already identified
6	What activities is the financial institution and/or person at risk carrying out in or in relation to the destination jurisd	iction?
7	List the evidence that supports the conclusion that sending information to this jurisdiction will result in a threat to human rights
8	List the supporting documents which accompany this application. This should include evidence of the threat, or simil threats involving the activities of the financial institution and/or person at risk and the destination or jurisdiction	lar

The host country, human rights law and international law continued
9 Use the space below to give any other facts relevant to this application, which have not been included
Financial institution or individual
10 Is the financial institution or individual submitting application forms relating to different jurisdictions?
No
Yes Go to box 11
State how many applications are being submitted by the financial institution or individual
Contact dataile
Contact details  We need this information if we have any questions.
12 Your name 14 Telephone number
Position in financial institution - if applicable 15 Email address
What to do next
Send your completed form to:  Data Acquisition and Exchange
International Data Exchange Team  HM Revenue and Customs
BX9 1XA
Communicating by email
You can send completed forms and any queries by email to aeoi.enquiries@hmrc.gov.uk f you choose to email us, please be aware that email is not secure. The main risk is that information sent by email could be hanged or read by someone else before it reaches us. Only use email to contact us if you accept the risks.
Put an 'X' in the box if you agree to the email risks		