

De Wet De Villiers

De Wet holds a BAcc.LLB degree from Stellenbosch University and joined PwC's corporate and international tax team in Cape Town as a Tax Consultant in 2011. During his time at PwC, he provided tax consulting services to various local and multinational groups which included advice on group restructurings, mergers and acquisitions, capital gains tax, and share incentive schemes.

He is an admitted advocate of the High Court of South Africa, registered Business Restructuring Professional, and registered Tax Practitioner. De Wet also currently serves as the Secretary-General for the South African branch of the International Fiscal Association.

In 2014, De Wet joined Imperial Logistics to head up its commercial and legal team with his main focus area being mergers and acquisitions into Africa. During his time at Imperial Logistics, De Wet was responsible for the set-up of the central legal department and company secretarial function for the African operations. During 2018, partnering with Exigent, he won the Innovation Award at the African Legal Awards.

De Wet currently focuses on group restructuring as well as mergers and acquisitions, all while maintaining a keen interest in legal technology and innovation.

De Wet het die BRek.LLB graad aan die Universiteit Stellenbosch behaal. Hy het in 2011 by PwC se korporatiewe en internasionale belastingspan aangesluit as belastingkonsultant, waartydens hy belastingadvies aan verskeie plaaslike en multinasionale groepe verleen het, insluitende advies oor groepeerstrukturerings, samesmeltings en oornames, kapitaalwinsbelasting en aandeelopsieskemas. Hy is ook 'n toegelate Advokaat aan die Hoë Hof van Suid-Afrika.

De Wet het in 2014 aangesluit by Imperial Logistics om hul kommersiële- en regsspan te lei, met sy hoof fokusareas synde samesmeltings en oornames in Afrika. Gedurende sy tyd by Imperial Logistics was hy verantwoordelik vir die totstandkoming van die sentrale regsdepartement en maatskappy sekretariële funksie vir die groep se bedryf in Afrika. Gedurende 2018, in vennootskap met Exigent, wen hy die Innovasie Toekenning by die African Legal Awards.

De Wet fokus tans op groepeerstrukturerings asook samesmeltings en oornames en het 'n aktiewe belangstelling in regstegnologie en innovasie
