

ABOUT MARK SATER

Mark has led organisational transformation and growth across a range of sectors and geographies. His career includes two decades in consumer goods and retail, and one decade in regulated medical devices.

A chartered accountant by qualification, his significant management and board level experience has included roles as President, Global Consumer Group, Velcro Group of Companies, Chief Executive Officer, AccuMED Corp LLC, a supplier of class II medical devices, Chairman of Amoena Medizin-Orthopadie-Technik GmbH, the global market leader in mastectomy prostheses, and Managing Director of Overland Group Ltd, which launched and grew the Caterpillar boots and clothing business.

He joined Sage Housing Group as Chief Executive Officer in August 2020, having previously been an advisor to the Regis Group. He also acts for a family office based in Europe.

Mark graduated in 1982 with a BAcc and in 1983 with a Hons BAcc from Stellenbosch University. He is a former Dagbreker.

